H. G. Fairfield Arts Center for the Environment
presents:

“30 Shows in 30 Days - Courage Continues at Home”

October 1st to October 30th, 2011, national headliner comedian and Brewster Navy veteran PJ Walsh is performing 30 one-hour, stand-up comedy shows throughout the Hudson Valley at local VFW Posts, American Legion Halls and in Veterans Administration Health Centers.

PJ Walsh has entertained troops in Japan, Korea, the Balkans, and throughout Iraq and Afghanistan. Featured on CNN and “Comics on Duty”, PJ spent years on the road with the Blue Collar Comedy Tour show.

- “Over There: Comedy Is His Best Weapon”
Best of Hollywood Fringe Festival 2011
Best of San Francisco Fringe Festival 2011
- Unanimous Producers Choice Nominee for
Mega Star LA Comedy Awards 2012

• “PJ Walsh is a talented performer and his life story crosses paths with the likes of Mother Teresa, President Clinton and his Drill Sergeant. . . Hilarious show... that goes much deeper than you’d expect.”
www.theasy.com

• “Just when you’re thinking you can laugh no more, [PJ] hits you in the stomach with raw emotion and you realize [Walsh’s] comic agenda is not just about him but to help and support others as well.”

H. G. Fairfield Arts Center for the Environment Inc. is a 501 (c) (3) organization established by Marine & Korean War veteran Katherine Fairfield Freston, who is carrying on her grandfather’s legacy of “See a need; fill it.” H. G. Fairfield’s mission is to help meet the needs of our community and environment through promotion of expressive and creative arts and culture.

Courage Continues At Home is an initiative that focuses on local veterans and their families, and

- raising funds for food, clothing, shelter, and medical attention for local veterans and their families, &
- raising awareness of local veterans service officers, VFWs’, & American Legions’ programs.

• “If you’re looking for laughs, in the humble form of true talent and motivation, then check out PJ Walsh. You’ll laugh. You’ll cry. You’ll leave ready to conquer the world, or at least a small part of it.” Independent Media Magazine
